

Bob's Contract with Louisiana

LOUISIANA Bob Bell, a candidate in State Senate District 16 of the South Baton Rouge area for the October 12, 2019 Election contracts with the voters as follows:

- Bob will bring business sense and conservative common sense to the Louisiana State Senate and state government generally
- Bob will fight to reduce taxes and eliminate unnecessary regulations and state government intrusion into the lives of the people
- Bob will fight to have at least 90 percent of the fuel taxes spent on roads and bridges with approximately 10 percent allocated as needed to ports, airports and public transportation. (Now most of the gas tax in NOT spent on roads and bridges)
- Bob will fight to return the federal tax cuts to the people instead of having them offset and completely neutralized by corresponding state tax increases
- Bob will fight waste and corruption and costly duplication of functions by a multitude of state government departments and officials
- Bob will fight to promote a business friendly climate in Louisiana that creates jobs and more taxpayers instead of more costly endless government welfare type expenses
- Bob will fight the politicians using money allocated for costal restoration
- Bob will fight to uphold and defend the federal constitution and Bill of Rights and will push for pro-life and gun owners' rights including the Second Amendment
- Bob will listen to the taxpayers as to other consistent provisions that may be included in this contract as needed. For their part, in order to secure this contract and its provisions, the voters will strongly support Bob and vote for him.
