

1 that was -- that was hurting
2 yourself. You chose -- the 3 position you took, you know,
4 caused the other -- the other side
5 to take a position adverse to you
6 when you needed them. You needed
7 their help. You needed them to 8 try to get more money; but, yet,
9 you chose to take an adverse
10 position against them and to try
11 to just, you know, bully your way
12 with them by filing that lien
13 illegally. And then you filed
14 that -- you know, and then you did
15 the other stuff. I mean, you took 16 this other position when it was 17 clear as to what happened,
18 based on -- after I reviewed
19 everything. So, the bottom line
20 is, Mr. Broussard -- and I know
21 I'm not -- of course, I'm not --
22 some of what I'm saying, I guess,
23 has to do with the res judicata
24 issue; but, as far as these 25 motions -- I mean, on these
26 subpoenas, I don't know if there
27 is anything -- well, now, you made
28 some allegation of fraud just a
29 minute ago. You used the word.
30 What are you talking about as far
31 as fraud?
