Sen. Edmonds:

It was certainly a pleasure to see you pop in for the Stanford / OFI litigation on Thursday of last week and sit beside me for about 40 minutes or so.

As you may be aware, I provided gavel-to-gavel coverage of that trial on my video blog. You are welcome to review any or all of that coverage at this website:

www.SoundOffLA.com

As I'm sure you've seen by now, Mr. Preis, attorney for the victims, after indicating to the media on Friday that he would agree to be interviewed, "only if we prevail," nevertheless reversed course over the weekend and conducted this interview with WBRZ:

Attorney releases statement after jury found OFI not civilly liable in Stanford Trust Ponzi scheme \(wbrz.com\)

Prior to seeing the above interview, it was my plan to consider the Stanford matter "closed" in terms of me reporting upon it; however, given the above interview, I plan to produce an eleventh (11th) installment.

Since you were there, please let me know if you would like to be quoted (or even appear on camera because it is a video blog), and I will be happy to set that up. If not, I will merely report upon the fact that you were there, were seen speaking with one or more victims (Ms. Angela Alexander?) but declined our interview request on the matter.

Thank you, and I look forward to hearing back from you if you are interested in being quoted and/or appearing on video on the Stanford/OFI matter.
