Madame: You must be smoking the same "funny cigarettes" that Nelson, Edmonson, Dupuy, Flinchum and McGaga are smoking. I respectfully refer you to Part IV, Section 41 et seq. of the Louisiana Constitution of 1974, and more particularly to Section 48(4)(B), which provides: "Investigations. The Commission may investigate violations of this Part and the rules, statutes or ordinances adopted pursuant hereto."

In addition, your Commission's own Rule 2.4(c)(4) provides that: "The Commission may hold an executive meeting for one or more of the following reasons: Investigative proceedings regarding allegations of misconduct." My allegations which have been formally presented to the Commission, in writing, not only involve simple MISCONDUCT, but CRIMINAL conduct, to which your Commission is turning a "blind eye" by virtue of your wilfully dishonest missive of July 21, 2016.

In addition, the Louisiana Constitution of 1974, Article X, Part IV, Section 48(4)(B) specifically provides that: "The commission may investigate violations of this Part and the rules, statutes or ordinances adopted pursuant hereto.". Does that constitutional provision EXCLUDE criminal conduct by the Superintendent of the Louisiana State Police, among others?

Lastly, let me remind you that your Commission's own Rules, Chapter 2, Section 2.9 provide that: "The Commission is empowered: (c) To conduct investigations whenever it has reason to believe the provisions of the State Police Service Article or Rules are being violated or have been violated by any person or Department of Public Safety and Corrections, Office of State Police; and to hold public hearing when charges of such violations have been filed with it."

I repeat: Formal written charges have been filed, which not only delineate "simple misconduct", but CRIMINAL CONDUCT on the part of Edmonson, Dupuy, Flinchum, Nelson, McGaha and others. SO WHAT WILL THE COMMISSION DO ABOUT MY ALLEGATIONS? Ashton O'Dwyer.
