Dear Mr. Burns:

The FAA's Baton Rouge Flight Standards District Office completed their investigation of your safety allegations in case S20201222011. The investigation did not substantiate a violation of an order, regulation or standard of the FAA related to operational or maintenance issues at Louisiana State Police Air Support. If you would like to obtain a copy of the Investigative Results Report (IRR), you may file a request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) by submitting your request at the following website: https://www.faa.gov/foia/email_foia/. An IRR is a record associated with FAA Investigations, and are not maintained as a part of a hotline complainants Privacy Act System of records. However, you are entitled to any information within the IRR that is not protected under a FOIA exemption.

Thank you for bringing this matter to our attention.

Sincerely,

Reporting and Data Analysis Branch
