Craig-

As we discussed some time back, LSP was not going to continue any criminal investigation, as I felt after consulting with legal colleagues, that there was not any criminal statutes that met this scenario. I have not furthered the investigation, as there were no elements of the statutes met. I spoke with an attorney at the AG's office and she also felt that there were not any criminal nexus here. In order for me to present a case to a prosecutor, that case must meet the criminal elements of the crime. In this case, this did not happen. I understand that you and your wife were hoping for a different outcome, however, we as investigators are bound by the laws as well.

I have not. I wasn't aware of that statute or that anyone was working a case at that angle.

The only thing I could provide is that I interviewed her by phone about the circumstances. I'm not sure if I elaborated and shared with her that there was an actual criminal investigation going on.

Chad,
Would it be possible to get a report on the statements that you have collected? We have run into an issue with the ODC.
Thank you,
Craig
