Re: Respondent: Robin Anne Sylvester
Complainant: Billy Broussard
ODC File No.: 0037659

Dear Mr. Broussard:

We have concluded our investigation into the facts and surrounding circumstances raised in your complaint, as well as the response of Robin Anne Sylvester. The burden of proof in disciplinary cases is clear and convincing evidence. This is a higher standard of evidence than is required in ordinary civil lawsuits, but less than the beyond a reasonable doubt standard required in criminal cases. It is the conclusion of this office that the evidence is not clear and convincing that Ms. Sylvester engaged in ethical misconduct that violated the Rules of Professional Conduct adopted by the Louisiana Supreme Court. No formal disciplinary action is appropriate, and we are dismissing your complaint.

Under Supreme Court Rule XIX, §11B(3), a complainant may file a written appeal of our decision to dismiss. You must file any appeal with this office within thirty (30) days of this letter.

We appreciate your concern for the maintenance of professional standards by all attorneys practicing law in our state.

Sincerely,

Robin K. Mitchell
Deputy Disciplinary Counsel
