We were on a phone call and I heard the seat belt sensor ding which is when I text my parents to call 911 & head over to Amanda Lane because he was on site. He stated he was going to break in or come thru the door which he then did. He came into the bedroom where I was hiding. He asked for my phone, and asked if I had called the police; to which I answered yes. He told me to call them off and physically grabbed me, my hair, etc. He wanted me to go with him to Robinson Rd as his kids were still at the house & he knew the police would be coming & find them home alone. I stated numerous times I did not want to go. He physically got me into the back seat of the car & I hopped out the back passenger side; he came around the back of the vehicle & stopped me which is how I hit my head on the driveway. There is video showing all physical video Facsimile incidents. We got into the vehicle & headed to Robinson Rd. My state, he mentions or states being in a state of "panic". We pulled behind the pool house & entered the pool house. I had blood on my face, from a bloody nose which we cleaned my face.
