Nolo Contendere
PLEA OF GUILTY AND WAIVER OF RIGHTS

I, Michael L. Satcher, II, desire to enter a plea of Nolo Contendere guilty to the charge(s) of:

Count 1: Unauthorized Entry of an Inhabited Dwelling and have been informed of and understand the charge(s) to which I am pleading, as well as the following rights:

1. My right to be represented by an attorney at each stage of these proceedings and if I cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed to represent me at trial and on appeal;
2. My right to plead not guilty (or persist in that plea if already made) and go to trial by judge or jury;
3. At trial, the State would have the burden of proving my guilt beyond a reasonable doubt and I would have the right: to the assistance of an attorney, to confront and cross-examine witnesses against me, not to be compelled to incriminate myself and to subpoena witnesses to testify in my behalf;
4. By pleading guilty, there will be no trial because I am waiving my right to a trial and all the above rights I am entitled to at trial;
5. I understand the nature and elements of the crime I am charged with committing and by pleading guilty, I will be convicted of this offense which can be used to enhance the sentence of a future criminal conviction;
6. I understand the minimum/maximum sentence I could receive is: Up to 6 years in prison with or without Hk, a fine of up to $1,000, or both.
7. In exchange for my plea of guilty, I understand that I am to receive the following sentence: To be left up to Judge, but A is 853E eligible
8. Neither the State of Louisiana, my attorney or the Judge have made any promises to me concerning how much time I will serve or my eligibility for parole or good time.
9. I understand if I plead guilty or nolo contender, in addition to any sentence that might be imposed as a result of my plea, I may be subject to additional consequences or waivers of constitutional rights as follows: potential deportation and/or prevention of entering the United States for a person who is not a United States citizen; the right to vote, the right to bear arms, the right to due process; and, the right to equal protection.
10. Q In exchange to the above charge and sentence bargained for, I understand this matter will be finalized and waive all rights to file any post trial motions including but not limited to an appeal of my conviction and sentence, along with Motions to Reconsider Sentence, New Trial, Amend Sentence, Request for Public Records on this case, and Post-Conviction Relief; also because I was advised of the rights listed above, I waive my right to request a free transcript of my guilty plea unless I state a particularized need;
11. I agree that I will not file any motions to alter this plea agreement, including, but not limited to, motions seeking to vacate my sentence, to reduce my sentence, to appeal any parts of my sentence, to undo or alter in any way any part of this plea agreement or my sentence or to withdraw my plea. If I file such motions, the State of Louisiana shall have the right to declare this plea agreement, in its entirety, to be null and void and to prosecute me for any original charge that was amended prior to any plea agreement being made with me.

I further declare my plea of guilty is free and voluntary, that no additional understandings, promises, or conditions have been entered into other than that contained in this plea of guilty and that this written agreement supersedes any prior understandings, promises or conditions.

I certify that I have explained the contents of this form to the defendant. I am satisfied the defendant understands these constitutional rights, as set forth above, and that the guilty plea is freely, voluntarily and intelligently made.

This form has been explained to me and I understand all of my constitutional rights and the nature of the charge. I am freely and voluntarily pleading guilty.

WAIVER OF FINANCIAL DECLARATION HEARING

Pursuant to the Louisiana Code of Criminal Procedure Article 875.1(C)(1), "the court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether payment in full of the aggregate amount of all the financial obligations to be imposed upon the defendant would cause substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his dependents." "The defendant may waive the judicial determination of a substantial financial hardship required by the provisions of this Paragraph." La. Code of Crim. Pro. art. 875.1(C)(2).

By signing this waiver, the defendant asserts the ability to provide payment for fines, fees, costs, restitution, and other monetary obligations related to [their] criminal sentence, incarceration, or as a condition of the defendant's release on probation or parole. La. Code of Crim. Pro. art. 875.1(B).

I, Michael L. Satcher, II, hereby acknowledge and understand that I am waiving my right to a hearing before the Court to determine whether the financial obligations imposed upon me will create a substantial financial hardship to me or my dependents and assert that I have means and ability to pay such financial obligations.
