MOTION AND ORDER TO REVEAL
EXCULPATORY INFORMATION CONTAINED IN GRAND JURY TESTIMONY

NOW INTO COURT comes the State of Louisiana, through the undersigned Assistant District Attorney, who shows the following:

1.

The defendant is entitled to all exculpatory information known to the State.

2.

After a thorough review of the grand jury testimony transcripts in this case, the undersigned is of the opinion that the testimony of Dr. Jennifer Forsythe contains exculpatory information bearing directly upon the charge against the defendant for Negligent Homicide.

3.

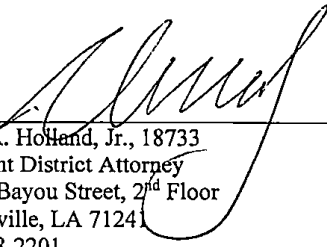

As that testimony is statutorily protected from disclosure, the State seeks this order so her testimony may be released to the defendant.

WHEREFORE, the State prays that the court order that a transcript of the testimony of Dr. Jennifer Forsythe be released to the defendant pursuant to its obligations under Brady v. Maryland and its progeny.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN BELTON
District Attorney
